PARTY TIME!

You've put in the time, now come take time off!
Its Thirsty Thursdays

We are kicking the fall off with four scheduled Happy Hours which will be strategically located in different parts of the Valley to make it more convenient for those members who live and work outside of the City. Please plan to join us for one or ALL of the events. Cost is $15/person and includes two drinks and shared appetizers. Click here to register or visit www.vos.cfma.org.

Suicide Prevention

Providing Critical Training

Shout out to D.P. Electric for being the first company that has invited Dave & Michelle out to present suicide prevention training to their foremen!

Danielle Puente set her company apart by bringing this important topic in house, educating the leaders that interface with employees at risk each day.

Hoping that this will be the start of many more!

CFM Academy

CFMA's educational offerings continue to grow

The Construction Financial Management Association (CFMA) CFM Academy is an online self-study course developed for professionals who have zero to three years' experience in construction finance. The course is divided into six modules that provide in-depth learning on each of the following topics:

- Revenue Recognition
- Cash Management
- Project Management
- Risk Management
- Contracts/Subcontracts
- Work-in-Progress (WIP)
