Institute of Logistics
and Transport

How to Get the Most out of your Membership

CILT Australia actively supports CILT Members of Defence to achieve their career goals by engaging with training providers that have content that is relevant to the industry today and aligns with our Key Knowledge Areas as set by the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport (CILT).

CILT Australia is dedicated to offering its members a range of products and services designed to help members at every stage of their careers. A key element of this is the opportunity for members to connect and share knowledge with our extensive network of over 36,000 professional members worldwide.

CILT Australia members enjoy an exciting range of exclusive online benefits that can be accessed via the Member Engagement Hub. Please take the time to update your preference centre to ensure that you receive the latest information from your favourite National, State Section and Specialist Forums; one of which has been dedicated to CILT Defence members.

News

Keep up-to-date with the latest industry news

CILT is the principal source of news and key insights for the whole of the transport and logistics profession. Members receive our highly-regarded digital CILTA Weekly Wrap-Up containing industry-relevant articles shared by members in the CILT Member Community. Any breaking events or news are also posted on our website as well as our social media channels, thus keeping you informed on developments as they occur.

Networks

Networking - Engaging with like-minded individuals at events all across Australia

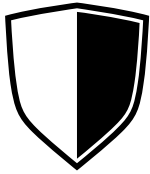

We organise regular events across Australia every year where CILT Members of Defence (and non-members exploring the benefits of membership) are encouraged to share ideas, discuss business opportunities and build strong relationships with people working in other areas of the logistics and transport sector.

Be sure to take advantage of special CILT member discounts on all our national events including the International Webinars, Annual Awards Function, Section events, Women in Logistics and Transport events and online webinars.

Attendance at these events also counts as Continuing Professional Development points in your e-logbook.

Defence Champions

Qualifications and Training - Improving your career

There are opportunities per year for CILT Members of Defence to volunteer as CILT Champions on Sectional Committees. These individuals play a pivotal role in encouraging engagement with the Institute and in ensuring that CILT Members of Defence get the most out of their CILT membership.

In recognition of the importance of their role, CILT Defence Champions receive a free membership at their relevant membership grade whilst they carry out their role.

If you are interested in becoming a Champion or would like to understand how you can contribute to the development of the logistics profession, please contact your CILT National office via email: admin@cilta.com.au.

Mentoring

Mentoring – learning from industry experts

CILT offers mentoring opportunities to all CILT Members who are members of Defence and those who are not current members. These opportunities are available to Defence personnel at all ranks or grades and are designed to support you in your career aspirations, whether that is to hone your logistics leadership skills or to develop deep specialist knowledge.

For further information and the application process, please refer to www.cilta.com.au/mentor-pages-bucket/mentoring.

Knowledge

Knowledge centre to access our online library

The Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport's Knowledge Centre contains Europe's largest collection of logistics, transport and supply chain resources, company information, legislative and compliance data, and competitive intelligence for all areas of business. Its online library is free to share with CILT Members of Defence.

CILT Members of Defence also enjoy exclusive access via the Defence Logistics People Team in the UK, and to country and industry reports, how-to guides, training presentations and best practice guides.

Professional Status

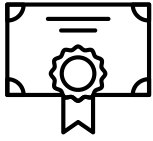

Our membership grades demonstrate professional competence and expertise

As a member of The Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport, Defence members automatically become part of an internationally-recognised network of professionals.

Our post-nominals – Member (MILT), Chartered Member (CMILT) and Chartered Fellow (FCILT), are recognised worldwide, and CILT Defence members are encouraged to use them on all business stationary and on CVs to demonstrate their professional skills and expertise

Know-How

Qualifications and Training - Improving your career

We support members to advance their careers through a carefully developed range of specialist qualifications and training courses that satisfy employer Continuing Professional Development (CPD) requirements.

Members of Defence enjoy member rates on all our courses.
