

Statement of Service: COTS, as a single entity, is in the position to bring together a neutral collaborative. COTS includes participation from healthcare agencies, emergency response agencies, public health, and government and private agencies. Some of our valued services include:

TRAUMA	DISASTER	EMERGENCY SERVICES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regional trauma registry -review/upload data to the state -data validation -research -performance improvement/quality projects (primary, secondary, tertiary, quaternary review) • Trauma education coordination -saves member hospitals between $5,000-$60,000/year in educator salary -busiest ATLS franchise in the US (over 400 doctors/year) -TNCC/ENPC/Trauma in the First 48 hours (over 250 RNs/year) -trauma research symposium -Stop the Bleed® education -Disaster Management Emergency Prep (DMEP) course • Provide American College of Surgeons (ACS) verification prep • Develop best practice guidelines • Real time activity system (RTAS) database • Emergency patient transport plan • Provide regional representation to local, regional, and state trauma related organizations and committees (ACS, OHA, ODH, State of Ohio Division of Emergency Medical Fire and Transportation Board {EMFTS}) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coordinate/manage the Central and Southeast/Southeast Central Regional Healthcare Emergency Preparedness (RHEP) Coalitions -access to regionally developed and maintained plans/tools -manages a cloud based real-time disaster management system • Healthcare Incident Liaison (HIL) -24/7/365 providing situational awareness/information sharing -collection, collation, monitoring of healthcare system performance and capacity -critical link between healthcare facilities, government agencies, and public health • Training/exercise planning -table tops, full scale, annual summit, DMEP, Stop the Bleed® -incident command and exercise development training -general CMS/TJC education • Coordinate storage, movement, and replacement of regional disaster caches • Represent Franklin County hospitals in FC EOC during an event and at county-wide planning initiatives • Provide regional representation to local, regional, and state disaster related organizations and committees (OHA, ODH, CMS, feds, The Joint Commission) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Critical link between EMS, fire departments, and healthcare systems • Develop best practice guidelines -with trauma division -SERT Team (with trauma) -trauma transfer/triage for EMS -standardized EMS sepsis alert -infectious EMS exposure -air medical communication -standardized patient care handoff • Coordinate committee work • Coordinate education -DMEP -Stop the Bleed® • Manage a regional hospital ATTESTATION that informs EMS of hospital destination capabilities related to time critical diagnoses • Performance improvement and quality initiative coordination related to trauma and RTAS data • Group Purchasing: Savvik • Provide regional representation to local, regional, and state emergency services related organizations and committees (OHA, ODH, EMFTS)