Don’t Let Your Membership Lapse!

As you know, in 2012 CoreNet Global moved to calendar-based memberships. As of January 1, 2013 all existing memberships should have been renewed.

Have you renewed your membership? If not, we strongly encourage you to renew before the end of February. With your renewal now our chapter will be able to increase programming, networking and philanthropic activities and deliver more value to you in 2013.

How do I renew? Renewal is extremely easy. Simply click here and renew your membership online right now!

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact our team. We look forward to your continued membership and support of the Mid-Atlantic Chapter.

The CoreNet Global Mid-Atlantic Chapter is pleased to announce the 2013 Corporate Real Estate Awards of Excellence Gala! By popular demand, this year’s event is moving from Fall to Spring and will be held in late May. Last year’s sold out Gala was a huge success and this year’s event is gearing up to be just as amazing. More details will be available soon, please check the website.

Award nominations will open soon

Sponsorship opportunities are available! Contact Carolyn Swanson, Chapter Administrator, for more information.
Letter from the President

As we wrap up the end of the fiscal year, I want to take this opportunity to acknowledge our board for their dedication, leadership and the many contributions provided during my tenure. This year has been, by far, filled with many accomplishments, significant changes and wonderful memories. We will be highlighting some of these major accomplishments at the annual membership meeting, to be held on March 14, 2013. Please make sure to be on the lookout for details and we hope to see you there!

The Executive Committee has made some significant changes to the chapter which we believe are in alignment with continuing to provide value to the chapter. First, we have added a Secretary position to the Executive Committee intended to provide governance oversight to the chapter. Please remember that voting for the Executive Committee begins February 14th.

Additionally, in response to the feedback from our members, sponsors and prospective sponsors, we have restructured our sponsorship program. The program will now run on a calendar year rather than on a fiscal year. We amended the sponsorship levels and have added a few other options in order to allow more opportunities for organizations to become sponsors thus providing the ability to promote their organization, services and/or products.

Lastly, we moved around the timing of two of our pinnacle programs. In an effort to ensure that our Gala does not compete with the CoreNet Global Summit in October, we have shifted the timing of the Gala to end of May and our golf tournament to early fall.

The chapter continues to bring value to our members by supporting, educating and promoting the real estate executive. We have several educational and social events planned. Please make sure to join us at an event soon!

I also want to acknowledge the support of HIT; Jones Lang LaSalle; Price Modern; I-95 Business Parks Management; Cresa; DTZ; MOI; Tishman Speyer; and all of the rest of our sponsors. This chapter would not be a success without your continued support!

I want to personally thank you for a wonderful year. I truly cannot thank you enough for your contributions, participation, and commitments. I look forward to stepping into an advisory role and I will focus all of my efforts to support the chapter accordingly. You all have made this year a true success, thank you!

Sincerely,

Lorena Stranigan

Feb. 26 Education – Planning an Office for the Next Generation

Next Next Generation…
We’ve heard a lot about the multigenerational workforce and its impact on the office, but if you really want to plan the office of the future, you have to know what’s coming next. What will the generation after the millennials look at and what is likely to be their impact on the way we work? Please join Kay Sargent of Teknion and Andrea Fitch of Kramer Consulting as they enlighten us. Light dinner fare will be included. Special thanks to our event sponsor, CORT.

When: Tuesday, February 26, 2013, 4:30 PM - 6:30 PM
Where: Thalhimers HQ, 11100 W Broad Street, Glen Allen, VA 23060

The 2013 Eastern Regional Symposium returns to Philadelphia this June! The event is scheduled for June 17-18, 2013 at the University of Pennsylvania and will focus on the theme of “Resource Strategies for Resilient Corporate Real Estate Portfolios.” The educational sessions will focus on the new challenge to make cities and buildings resilient, sustainable, functional, vibrant, and attractive with ideas, tactics, and strategies to meet these challenges in a cost effective manner.

The ERS Planning Committee recently announced that Andrew Zolli, Executive Director and Curator of PopTech, will be the keynote speaker at the symposium’s Opening General Session, entitled “Resilience—Why Things Bounce Back.” Zolli is a big picture thinker at the intersection of trends, technology, strategy and innovation. His presentation will explore ‘resilience thinking’ and how it is starting to shape how urban planners in big cities think about updating antiquated infrastructure. His presentation also centers on how ‘resilience thinking’ can bolster people's psychological and physiological capacity to deal with high-stress circumstances.

The 2013 Eastern Regional Symposium is a members-only event and is brought to you by the following CoreNet Global Chapters: Philadelphia; New Jersey; Connecticut/Westchester; Long Island; Mid-Atlantic; New England and New York City.

Sponsorship Opportunities are Available!

From Richmond to DC -
The Mid-Atlantic Chapter Celebrates the Holidays!

On December 6th, members of the Corporate Real Estate community gathered at MOI's Richmond Showroom, within the James Center, to celebrate the Holiday Season through fellowship and networking. In keeping with the spirit of the season, many of the guests brought gift cards that were donated to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Thank you to everyone who made a donation. Special thanks go to our event sponsors: MOI, Tandus Flooring and VA EDP.

On December 12th more than 150 chapter members and guests celebrated the holiday season with hors d'oeuvres, drinks, dessert, and raffle prizes at SRA International in Washington, DC. Members brought more than 100 toys to donate to the Marine Toys for Tots Foundation as a way to give back to the community. Special thanks to SRA International for hosting the holiday party and to IST for sponsoring the event.

Learning to Leverage Social Media

The Mid-Atlantic Communications Committee hosted an evening of Social Media education on November 13 in Washington, DC at the Herman Miller Showroom. Evan Gassman with the David All Group explained the evolution of social media, presented an overview of the different Social Media offerings, and provided ideas on how to use them to propel ideas, make connections, and gather information. After the presentation, attendees participated in hands-on breakout sessions led by our CoreNet Social Media experts in the following areas: LinkedIn Beginners, LinkedIn Intermediate/Expert, Twitter, Blogging, and Facebook. Groups rotated once, allowing them to explore two areas. After the session, the attendees enjoyed a networking cocktail party, hosted by Herman Miller.
Uncertainty was the word of the day at the 2013 Regional Real Estate Forecast held at HITT Contracting's Fairfax office. A packed room gathered to listen as the panelists discussed the outlook for the Mid-Atlantic Region for 2013.

Paula Munger, Regional Research Director for the Mid-Atlantic Region of Cushman & Wakefield, started off the event with the Office Market outlook and update. Education and Healthcare will remain strong. While 2013 does not look great, there is anticipated growth by 2015. On average, DC and Northern Virginia will see increasing rental rates, while Suburban Maryland will see decreasing rental rates. Concessions have topped out, but will hold firm through 2013. In the Washington Metro market renewals will continue to dominate. In Baltimore, the Fort Meade district was the healthiest due to the government contractor demand. Richmond will see continued slow improvement and while absorption rates are positive, they still fall below 2011 levels.

Jae Lee, Senior Vice President and GSA Specialist at Jones Lang LaSalle, focused on the GSA leasing trends in the National Capital Region. The government is trying to set an example by reducing their footprint. In the past, 60,000-80,000 SF was the average lease size – this is drastically going down. Lease terms are also decreasing. Agencies are seeking short-term leases while they establish their long-term capital plans.

Finally, Bill Kaye, Executive Vice President and Capital Markets Specialist at CB Richard Ellis, gave an overview of Capital Markets. According to Kaye, there is no shortage of capital, but the Washington DC area continues to be scrutinized (2012 saw low transactions – 30% off from 2011). There are favorable interest rates for investors, but as the economy continues to recover through 2015-2016, interest rates will begin to creep back up. Properties that model the Live, Work, Play scenario are favored. The question remains – what happens to buildings that are not near such amenities? Maryland continues to grow through urban infill of the live, work, play model, but the 270-corridor will be tough.
Volunteer Opportunities

Share your expertise and support your Chapter... Volunteer today! This year, the Mid-Atlantic Chapter plans to add even more value to its members by delivering quality events and educational opportunities. To do that, we need the help of energetic volunteers just like you! Click here to view our committees. Each of them could use support with current objectives and help in creating new ones.
