

ANTITRUST STATEMENT FOR CHAPTERS

CoreNet Global and its Chapters bring significant, pro-competitive benefits to their members, the corporate real estate profession, and the public by advancing the practice of corporate real estate. Meetings held by CoreNet Global and held its Chapters bring together diverse professionals to advance the interests of the corporate real estate profession. Meeting attendees, both members and non-members, are comprised of competitors and, as such, collective actions that eliminate any element of competition are strictly prohibited.

Examples of prohibited acts include fixing prices, limiting output, employee anti-poaching agreements, excluding competitors from the profession, allocating customers or territories, or facilitating the exchange of competitively sensitive information between competitors. All CoreNet Global meetings, including Chapter, meetings and activities are subject to strict compliance with this Antitrust Policy ("Policy") and antitrust laws and shall be conducted in a manner that is consistent with the Policy and the antitrust laws.

Each individual member and attendee at any meeting is responsible for knowing the contents of the Policy, and for complying with it. Any discussion of competitively sensitive topics with a competitor should be avoided before, during, and after any meeting or activity and, if known, will be proactively addressed by CoreNet.
