CoreNet Global Carolinas to Host Triangle Economic Development Program - Feb. 7

RALEIGH, N.C. – Jan. 22, 2019 – CoreNet Global Carolinas – a professional association dedicated to the advancement of the corporate real estate industry – will be hosting “Beyond Raleigh – Economic Development Within the Triangle Region” on Thursday, Feb. 7. It will take place at Wake Tech RTP Campus – 10908 Chapel Hill Road in Morrisville – from 7:30-10:00 a.m. with an optional tour afterwards.

The breakfast program will include the following panel of speakers – Dwight Basset from Chapel Hill, Evan Stone from Cary, and Chris Johnson from Johnston County – who will discuss the unprecedented growth occurring in their communities, and their thoughts on how their communities fit into the regional piece of the puzzle known as The Research Triangle Region.

Registration is $25 for members and $50 for non-members, and the cost includes breakfast. For more information or to RSVP, visit <http://bit.ly/BeyondRaleighFeb7>.

“This forum will give us an inside look into the growth strategies for their individual communities, focus on recent exciting announcements, as well as provide insight into how the region works together to benefit us all,” said Frank Wiseman, CoreNet Global Carolinas Chapter President. “We look forward to hosting this dynamic program that will give attendees an opportunity to network and gain important insight from a great panel of subject matter experts.”
