SINGAPORE

I am a CoreNet Singapore member but am not based in Singapore during this programme duration. Can I still sign up?

Unfortunately, for this pilot run, we are opening it only to members who are physically in Singapore to facilitate an in-person connect.

REGISTRATION
CLOSES
THURSDAY, 15
OCTOBER
2020

Learn from professionals in adjacent functions or fields and deepen your knowledge and understanding of Corporate Real Estate.

5

I don't know much about mentoring. Can I still sign up to be a mentor?

Yes, you can! The spirit of this programme is to help everyone learn and grow, both as leaders and as individuals.

6

How is the mentor and mentee matching done?

Each individual will need to register interest for this programme by Thursday 15th October 2020.

After registration has closed, you will receive a profile form to fill up and return via email. Based on this profile form, the CoreNet Singapore L&D sub-committee reviews applications and suggests matches based on participant backgrounds and goals. You will be informed of this match in the last week of October.

What if I don't get successfully matched with a mentee or mentor in this round?

You will be given priority for subsequent runs of this programme, where we will be in touch to validate your participation interest then.

What is the expected time commitment of the programme?

It will last for 5 months, and will run from November 2020 to March 2021. Mentors and mentees are expected to commit to 1-to-1 meetings at least once a month. Each session duration is encouraged to be between 60 to 90 mins.

What is the format of the mentoring sessions?

Each pair can make their own individual arrangements on preferred communication methods and can decide to either meet in person or through virtual meetings. During this period of Covid-19, pairs are encouraged to align and take any necessary precautions.

What if I don't think my mentor or mentee is a right fit for me?
