☐ End User — US $595

☐ End User Young Leader — US $200

End User members are those individuals with real estate or real estate related responsibilities. They are focused on the workplace or infrastructure management for public, private or governmental organizations. This organization utilizes or leases real estate for its own needs, rather than for investment, sale, or development.

☐ Service Provider — US $750

☐ Service Provider Young Leader — US $300

Service Provider members are those individuals in professions that serve the needs of the corporate real estate executive. This includes, but is not limited to: property managers, brokers, builders and developers, consultants, architects, attorneys, etc. The primary focus of the service provider member is to attract business for economic gain, i.e. to manage accounts or provide some service.

☐ Economic Developer — US $750

☐ Economic Developer Young Leader — US $300

Economic Developer members include, but are not limited to, those individuals that are employed by: national, regional, state, county, and city economic development organizations; chambers of commerce, community and neighborhood development organizations.

☐ Journalist — US $95

Journalist members are in the business of writing for, editing or publishing information relating to real estate and employed by a media source which is published at least four (4) times each calendar year. This category includes only journalists from the press and electronic media, and specifically excludes those individuals employed in advertising or sales capacities, who may qualify as Service Provider Members.

☐ Academic — US $95

Academic Members are educators who spend at least eighty (80) percent of their time teaching in the field of real estate or real estate related education.

☐ Member-in-Transition Program

To be considered eligible for this program, you must currently be out of work and actively searching for a job.
Please call 404.589.3200 for more information.

☐ Retired — US $95

Retired members must have been associated with the Association or its predecessors for at least five (5) years as a member in good standing. Retired members are no longer working in a real estate or real estate related industry.

☐ Student — US $75

Student Members must be full-time or active degree candidates in real estate or related fields, and are not currently employed in a real estate or real estate related industry.
