

Service Provider of the Year

This award recognises an individual who delivers outstanding value to corporate real estate clients as a service provider. The recipient demonstrates excellence through client outcomes, organisational alignment, operational impact, leadership, and innovation; regardless of role type, business size or revenue model.

Eligibility Criteria

- Eligible professionals serve corporate real estate end users/ occupiers in professional disciplines such as project, facilities, or property management, design, engineering, construction, and other advisory services, or complementary services that directly impact the built environment.
- Must work and reside in the CoreNet Global Australia region.
- Must be a CoreNet Global member or an employee of a sponsor company in good standing.
- Last year's individual category winner is ineligible for this year's award.
- Executives of CoreNet Global Australia are exempt from submitting nominations for this award.
- If the award sponsor chooses to write a feature article on the winner, we kindly ask that you make yourself available at a mutually convenient time.
- Judges will assess submissions based on impact and outcomes relative to role scope, organisation size, and area of responsibility, not transaction volume or revenue alone.

Submission Criteria

1. Client Outcomes (max 1000 words - weighting 50%)

Demonstrated ability to consistently deliver strong outcomes for clients. Examples may include (but are not limited to):

- Improved business performance, efficiency, or risk management
- Successful delivery of complex transactions, projects, or operational programs
- Cost savings, revenue protection, or value creation
- Measurable improvements in satisfaction, service quality, or decision-making
- Provide tangible examples
