- + We deliver knowledge to advance your career and grow your company — and to deliver value to your customers and clients — through industry best practices, trends, research and real solutions.
- + We deliver connections for the exchange of knowledge, peer-to-peer interaction and relationship-building to expand your networks and grow your sphere of influence.

end user multi-member program

End-user members (Two or more from the same company) are eligible to apply for multi-membership.

Multi-member end-users benefit from reduced membership rates and are entitled to all member benefits including:

- Reduced rates for educational and professional development programs
- Reduced rates for Global Summits
- Reduced or free attendance at local chapter events
- Access to global membership directory and Career Center
- Free subscription to the LEADER magazine
- Opportunities for recognition within CoreNet Global
- And MORE!

End User Multi-Member Program Eligibility

To participate in the End User Multi-Member Program, a company must be:

- » An end-user company based in New Zealand (i.e. only local, not global locations); or
- » A national government agency.

Membership Discount

Local End-user company or NZ Government agency - 20% off the end-user membership fee (excluding Young Leader memberships - 35 years and younger.)

Memberships follow a 1 January - 31 December calendar year, charged pro rata and are held in the individuals' names. The company should designate a key contact to liaise with CoreNet Global.

"This international network of corporate real estate experts provides me with a cross-company view on corporate real estate management as well as global industry trends. It also helps me react to day-to-day challenges much faster."
