Council of State Archivists - National Historical Publications and Records Commission State Historical Records Advisory Board Award of Merit

The Council of State Archivists and the National Historical Publications and Records Commission are pleased to recognize outstanding SHRAB projects and programs that have taken place in the previous calendar year with the SHRAB Award of Merit.

Eligibility: Any SHRAB project or program that resulted in strengthening the condition or access of documents and records within its state. Projects and programs must have been carried out last year but may reflect progress and objectives over multiple years.

Projects and programs may be either one-time or ongoing efforts. SHRABs are encouraged to self-nominate.

Award Criteria: The Awards Committee will use one or more of the following criteria to evaluate a nomination:

- How did the project improve archival programs or raise the visibility of the archives within the state or territory? Did the project measurably improve current programs, adhere to best practices, or extend the reach of the archives?
- Does the project improve accessibility to archival collections, reach new audiences, and enhance current programs?
- What was the nominee's accomplishment relative to its resources or responsibilities?
- Is the project an outstanding example, significant to the field, overall quality, and their unique or innovative character.
