Mail To: CPRS, 7971 Freeport Blvd., Sacramento, CA 95832-9701 • 916-665-2777 • fax 916-665-9149

The California Park & Recreation Society has created a special “benefit package” membership for universities and colleges. The primary contact for the university receives all member benefits in CPRS, including voting rights.

As an advocate for the park and recreation profession, CPRS serves not only individual professionals, but also the agencies and organizations for which they work. The Society focuses on issues such as education, public safety, youth development, advocacy, providing resources networking and trainings to position you and your organization for success.

For $475 annually, universities enjoy the following special package of benefits with their membership:

- One free professional membership for your department head or primary contact identified by the university
- Professional member discount for other University staff – annual fee $145 vs $165
- Students with the University benefit too, with a $10 CPRS annual dues discount
- Significant member discounts when purchasing CPRS mailing labels
- At Cost Booth Space at CPRS Conference & Expo – CONNECTIONS
