

FOR GENERAL MANAGERS AND TOP MANAGEMENT

Certified Special District Manager (CSDM)

The Certified Special District Manager (CSDM) is a voluntary designation sought by individuals who strive to be the best in their field. Special District Managers with various academic and professional backgrounds can be candidates for the program.

Qualifying For The Exam

The certification application in special district administration is built around specific categories. These factors include professional special district and related experience; related continuing education; community service and higher education background.

CURRENT EXPERIENCE

In order to earn the CSDM Certification, an individual must have:

- Worked three out of the last five years in a position of management in a California special district. Related work experience with other public agencies or private firms may be considered by application to the Certification and Audit Review Advisory Committee. A current resume is required with your application.

ACCEPTED COURSES

All courses offered by the California Special Districts Association (CSDA) or any statewide association specializing in local government are valid for the certification program and can count as continuing education. Applicants submitting course credits from other organizations, academic institutions or private firms, must include:

- General course descriptions for consideration by the Certification and Audit Review Advisory Committee. A written notification will be provided if course work is not accepted. The applicant then has an opportunity to appeal.
- All continuing education submitted for review must be from within the last five years.

Examination

A total of 400 points is required to qualify for the opportunity to take the examination based on the identified categories. The points listed to the right of each section in the application indicate the minimum/maximum points a candidate must have in each area. You can submit excess points for review, however must have at least 400 qualified points to move forward.

Upon determination of eligibility and qualification, an individual will be scheduled for the examination. Qualified applicants will be notified regarding the annual examination schedule. Applicants will also be notified of examination results within 30 days of taking the exam.

The exam consists of 100 total questions across many areas related to special district management, operations and governance and must be completed within two hours. A score of 70 or more is required to pass the exam. If unsuccessful on the first attempt, the exam may be re-taken once at a different time with no additional charge or application.

Fees

All fees are non-refundable.

ONE-TIME APPLICATION FEE

There is a $300 application fee for the Certified Special District Manager Program. This fee includes the CSDM study guide and review and evaluation of points earned prior to taking the examination. In the event that an applicant does not initially meet the minimum point requirement for taking the examination, the fee submitted remains valid for three years to allow ample time for accumulation of points.

EXAM FEE

The fee for the certification examination is $150. The exam may be re-taken once at a different time with no additional charge or application.

RE-CERTIFICATION FEE

The fee for recertification is $50 and must be submitted in accordance with the requirements for maintaining CSDM certification as listed below.

Maintaining CSDM Certification

The CSDM Certification is valid for four years from the date of successfully passing the exam. It can be kept current by completion of 75 continuing education points and a nominal recertification fee submitted to SDLF within each additional four-year period.
