

FOR GENERAL MANAGERS AND TOP MANAGEMENT

Certified Special District Manager (CSDM)

The Certified Special District Manager (CSDM) is a voluntary designation sought by individuals who strive to be the best in their field. Special District Managers with various academic and professional backgrounds can be candidates for the program.

Accepted Courses

All courses offered by the California Special Districts Association (CSDA) or any statewide association specializing in local government are valid for the certification program and can count as continuing education. Applicants submitting course credits from other organizations, academic institutions or private firms, must include:

- General course descriptions for consideration by the Certification and Audit Review Advisory Committee. A written notification will be provided if course work is not accepted. The applicant then has an opportunity to appeal.
- All continuing education submitted for review must be from within the last five years.

Recertification Fee

The fee for recertification is $50 and must be submitted in accordance with the requirements for maintaining CSDM certification as listed below.

Maintaining CSDM Certification

The CSDM Certification is valid for four years from the date of successfully passing the exam. It can be kept current by completion of 75 continuing education points and a nominal recertification fee submitted to SDLF within each additional four-year period.
