

Great Lakes Region, CSI – Program Resource Form
For use with the GLR Speakers Bureau

Please list the best Program(s) presented by your Chapter last year.

PROGRAM: Innovations in Construction: Old Dogs and New Tricks

Chapter or Joint Chapters: - CSI Columbus

Chapter Contact Information:

President: Brian Mc Nally

Program Chair: Ed Gabauer

Program Date: - December 11, 2017

Name of Presenter: – James L. Salmon

Presenter’s Contact Information:

Collaborative Construction Resources, LLC
300 Pike Street, Suite 500
Cincinnati, OH 45202
jameslsalmon@gmail.com

CEU Information: Yes 1 hour LU AIA No

Any Fees Required? - Not from Speaker.

Other Notes: Learning Points:

- Arm PEAK learners in facilities management capable of procuring and managing facilities, infrastructure and residential assets (Built Assets) with change management tools and an effective strategy for adopting a smart built culture that reduces initial costs, delivery times, and life-cycle costs of Built Assets.
Explain the IMPACT of PEAK learners in facilities management who procure and manage facilities. Infrastructure and residential assets (BUILT Assets) in a smart built culture that increases the energy efficiency, code compliance, and structural stability of BUILT Assets.
Identify the characteristics of the FABRIC of a firm culture that supports the procurement and management Of Built Assets intelligently over time and in a smart built culture that reduces initial costs, delivery times, and life-cycle costs of BUILT Assets.
Learn the characteristics of smart built CULTURES, especially in the public sector, that intelligently leverage virtual planning and design tools- BIM- and advanced procurement methods – IPD – in a smart built culture that reduces initial costs, delivery times, and life-cycle costs and increases the energy efficiency, code compliance, and structural stability of each Built Assets.

Please submit to Jack P. Morgan, FCSI
morwalsoplad1@gmail.com

Thank You!