

Willard Hawkins Barrows*, FCSI

"In recognition of your distinguished and dedicated service to The Construction Specifications Institute, as Vice-President and member of the National Board, and as Co-Chairman of the National Chapter Development Committee, wherein your selfless contributions of time, your dynamic enthusiasm, and your immeasurable effort have been reflected in the spectacular growth of CSI, you are advanced to Fellowship in The Institute, April 25, 1962"
Atlanta, Georgia

WILLARD HAWKINS BARROWS became a member of CSI in August 1949, and he was CSI's 329th member.

Barrows was one of the founders of the Metropolitan New York Chapter and served as a member of CSI's "National Chapter Development Committee." The son of an architect, he began his work in the architectural field in 1919 and continued to practice as a consultant until his illness late in 1967.

He was a veteran of New York's famous Seventh Regiment, having served with it on the Mexican border and overseas in World War I where he was wounded in action.

Barrows passed away on August 20, 1968.
