

Andrew D. Rae, FCSI

"In recognition of your dedicated service to the Detroit Chapter of the Institute, service as Director, Great Lakes Section of the Institute an area encompassing Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, and West Virginia, and for efforts in furthering the aims and objectives of CSI, you are advanced to Fellowship in the Institute on this 21st day of June, 1972."
Minneapolis, Minnesota

ANDRE ANDREW D. RAE was born in Detroit, Michigan. He attended Wayne State University and the Alexander Hamilton Institute.

For many years, Rae was President of Williams Products, Inc. He was also Vice-President for sales for the Archcraft Division of Product Manufacturing Organization, Inc.

Rae joined CSI as a member of the Metropolitan Detroit Chapter in 1959 and has been an ardent supporter of CSI ever since.

In 1970, Rae was elected to the Institute Board as Institute Director for the Great Lakes Section, which encompassed Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, and West Virginia. During his term he was largely instrumental in forming five new chapters within the Section. He also assisted in chartering a chapter in Puerto Rico.

Rae has been an active participant in joint conferences with the Specification Writers Association of Canada in London, Windsor and Ontario.

Rae is also a member of a number of construction related organizations, including the American Concrete Institute, the American Society for Testing and Materials, Producers Council, the American Institute of Management and the Building Research Institute. He is also a member of the Troy, Michigan Board of Commerce.

Rae is also active in the Birmingham, Michigan Masonic Lodge, and the Detroit Shrine.

CSI Membership

Member, Detroit Chapter, 1959

Institute Offices, Committees

Director, 1970-1972