

Clarence H. King, Jr., FCSI

"In recognition of your distinguished service to the Institute, as a member of the Long-Range Planning Committee, for your dedicated service and contributions both of time and talent while serving on the Finance Committee and as Institute Treasurer, and with special appreciation and acknowledgement of the benefits accrued to the Institute as a result of your sincere and devoted service in the areas of finance and administration, you are advanced to Fellowship in the Institute on this 27th day of June, 1973"

Washington, DC

CLARENCE H. KING, JR. was born in St Louis, Missouri, in 1929. He attended Yale University and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1952.

In 1954, King began a long career in the architectural hardware industry as an assistant sales manager for P & F Corbin Division. In 1961, he joined the Hager Hinge company as Vice President for Sales and Marketing. In 1974, he became Vice President of Sales for Steelcraft Manufacturing Company. In 1979 he formed and became president of King Lincoln and Associates.

King first joined CSI as a member of the St Louis Chapter in 1967. In 1968, he was appointed to the Institute Finance Committee. He served on the Finance Committee until 1972, when he began a two-year term as Institute Treasurer. In 1976, he was elected Institute Vice President. King also served as a member of the Long Range Planning Committee in the early 1970s. In 1985, he was reappointed to the Long Range Planning Committee.

King also was an active member of the American Society of Architectural Hardware Consultants (ASAHC). In 1971, he was elected President of ASAHC after having served in all the other offices of that organization. On October 6, 1973, he was elevated to Distinguished Membership in the American Society of Architectural Hardware Consultants.

King was also a member of the Yale Clubs of St. Louis and New York. He served as President of the St. Louis Yale Club in 1970-72.

An avid sailor, King retired from business on June 1, 1994, to Boca Grande, Florida where he lives between cruises aboard his sailboat Crucero.

CSI Membership

St. Louis Chapter, 1967
Cincinnati Chapter
Metropolitan Detroit Chapter
Saginaw Valley Chapter

Institute Offices, Committees

Treasurer, FY 1973-74
Vice President, FY 1976

Awards

President's Plaque