

James N. Davis*, FCSI

"For your vision and dedication to education by developing a viable specifications writing course; creating the Atlanta CSI Foundation; integrating students into product shows; and your innovative service to the Institute as a leader, writer, and mentor, you are advanced to Fellowship in the Institute on the 23rd day of June 2001."

Dallas, Texas

JAMES "JIM" NEAL DAVIS was born in Douglasville, Georgia on December 20, 1949.

Jim graduated from Douglas County High School in 1967 and completed his Bachelor of Architectural Engineering Technology degree from Southern Technical Institute in 1973. He was employed by John Portman Associates, and was a partner at Williamson & Associates in Atlanta until 2000, when he retired to St. Simons Island.

Jim was a licensed architect and a member of the American Institute of Architects.

In addition to being president of the Atlanta Chapter, CSI, Davis was involved with the local chapter in Glynn County. He also served on numerous homeowners associations, including President of the Island Club on Sea Island, and was on the Island Club Board of Directors. He volunteered with the Optimist Club, the local AIA chapter, and assisted with the PGA Tournaments held on Sea Island.

Davis passed away on 19 June 2016, in St. Simons Island, Georgia.

CSI Membership

Atlanta Chapter

Institute Offices, Committees

Institute Director, Southeast Region, FY 1996

Region Offices, Committees

Director, FY 1990, 2002-2003

Chapter Offices, Committees

President, FY 1990

Awards

Institute

Education Commendation, 1997

J Norman Hunter Memorial Award, 1998

Distinguished Service Award, 2000

Certificate of Appreciation, 2000

Region

Region Director's Certificate, 1990

Educational Commendation 1993, 1997

Institute Director's Certificate, 1996

Distinguished Service Commendation, 1997

Speaker Appreciation, 1999