

Dante Leon
Associate Vice President

Mr. Leon is the Associate Vice President for the College of Business, Engineering & Technology at Daytona State College. With over 20 years of experience in higher education leadership, Mr. Leon has extensive experience developing new programs and work-based learning initiatives. At DSC he has led the implementation of new offerings in mechatronics, additive manufacturing, and robotics. At his previous work as a Dean in WA state, he was involved in the development of talent pipelines and sector strategies for the aerospace industry.

Hosting Partners

