

Joseph D'Souza

Vice President of External Engagement

Joey has been employed at the Able Trust since 2012 working on the signature youth program, High School High Tech. He is currently the Vice President of External Engagement, where he works to identify opportunities for collaboration and partnerships that benefit the inclusion of people with disabilities in Florida's workforce. Joey holds a Master's degree from FSU. He and his wife recently added a new dog to their family to the great excitement of their pre-existing dog.

Hosting Partners

