

William W. Large

President

William W. Large is the founding president of the Florida Justice Reform Institute. Prior to serving as president, Mr. Large served as Governor Bush's deputy chief of staff responsible for a portfolio of health and human service agencies. Before that, Mr. Large served as general counsel for the Florida Department of Health, and during that time served as director of the Governor's Task Force on Professional Liability Insurance. Prior to working for the state, Mr. Large was a partner practicing in professional malpractice litigation defense. Mr. Large is admitted to practice before all Florida courts and U.S. District Courts in Florida, and the U.S. Supreme Court. Mr. Large is "AV" rated by Martindale-Hubbell and a member of the Federalist Society, the Florida Defense Lawyers Association, and the Defense Research Institute. On April 15, 2011, Mr. Large was appointed by U.S. Senators Marco Rubio and Bill Nelson to serve on the Federal Judicial Nominating Commission for the Northern District of Florida and has been reappointed since. Mr. Large holds B.S. and J.D. degrees from the University of Florida, and an M.B.A, an M.S in Political Science, and an M.S. in Risk Management and Insurance from The Florida State University.

Hosting Partners

