Dear Friends,

I am pleased to present the 2012 Annual Report on behalf of the Board of Trustees of the FRPA Foundation. The priority of the Trustees continues to be reinvesting in the parks and recreation professional and the profession. This was critical as many were faced with economic conditions not like any before. The commitment by our donors and auction supporters allowed us to meet the financial goals to support this effort.

The Foundation had a presence at the Annual FRPA Conference near the registration area and in the exhibit hall. Recipients of the professional grants volunteered with Foundation Trustees providing a networking and leadership opportunity in a fun environment.

The 3rd Annual Foundation VIP Social was held in advance of the Auction. This event allowed VIP donors to gain a sneak peak at the hundreds of items available later in the evening.

Funds generated through donations and the auction provided the opportunity to again support the priorities of the FRPA. In an effort to maximize the funds available, the Foundation funding directly reached the largest education gatherings of professionals: The Joe Abrahams Academy for Leadership Excellence, and the Annual FRPA Conference closing session speaker. In addition, the FRPA Foundation doubled its commitments to professional scholarships this year.

The financial health of the Foundation remains sound as evidenced in the financial report. Prudent decisions were made in consultation with the Foundation financial advisor.

On a personal note, I am truly inspired by the giving of my fellow professionals during another difficult economic year. I want to thank the Trustees for their dedication. Their energy and vision is inspiring. It is truly an honor to serve as President of the Foundation.

I invite you to celebrate the success of this past year, and join with us to ensure that the Foundation remains strong.

Sincerely,

Bruce Fassett, CPRP
President
