

EXPERIENCE THE CITY from A TO Z

Atttempt a downhill skiing simulator, test your knowledge on sports trivia, and shoot hoops in a 1930's-era gymnasium at the NCAA Hall of Champions. Student-athletes of all 23 collegiate sports are celebrated in this interactive museum.

Bicycle around the new $63 million, 8-mile Cultural Trail connecting dining, shopping and entertainment in the city's six cultural districts.

Pass acres of new landscaping and public art installations.

Captivate your imagination with larger-than-life movie experiences at the towering IMAX Theater. The six-story screen offers audiences films ranging from intriguing documentaries to contemporary Hollywood productions in 2D and 3D.

Decorate your home with an original piece of art handcrafted during a Pop Up Workshop at the Indianapolis Art Center. Sip local wine and beer while bringing out your inner artisan at this premier community art center in Broad Ripple Village.

Fight back the tears as you try what the Travel Channel named the world's spiciest dish, St. Elmo's famous shrimp cocktail. Wash away the hotness with one of their specialty whiskey cocktails or wine from their 20,000-bottle cellar.

Grab an organic meal on the go or stock up on fresh groceries at City Market, where over 30 vendors provide delicious produce, crepes, smoothies, cookies, soups, sandwiches and more daily. On Wednesdays in the summer, fill your basket with healthy foods and support local growers at the Original Farmers' Market.

Hit the links at a course designed by the legendary architect Pete Dye, who has made his home in Indianapolis.

Brickyard Crossing features four holes inside the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, and The Fort's rolling hills and colorful foliage are breathtaking in the fall.

Indulge in pure relaxation at the luxurious Evan Todd Spa & Salon at the Conrad Indianapolis or deluxe Studio 2000 Salon & Day Spa on Monument Circle.

Journey through time at the Indiana History Center, discovering fascinating stories of the state's past and famous Hoosiers in engaging, interactive ways. Historic photographs come alive through interpreters in 'You Are There'.

Kayak, pedal boat, bike or relax in a gondola along the scenic Central Canal that winds through the 250-acre White River State Park in the heart of downtown. Pass towering works of art, bridge murals, veterans' memorials, and world-class museums.

Listen to the renowned Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra at the historic Hilbert Circle Theatre or with a picnic on the lawn at Conner Prairie's amphitheater.

Marvel at one of the finest collections of American Indians and Western art in the world at the only museum of its kind in the Midwest, the Eiteljorg, renowned for immersing visitors in the art, history and culture of the American West and indigenous peoples of North America.

Nail a strike at the only authentic duckpin bowling alley in the Midwest, located inside the historic Fountain Square Theatre Building. Action Bowl offers a spectacular view of the city from the top floor and nostalgic 1930s décor.

O

verlook the city skyline from atop the 284-foot tall Soldiers & Sailors Monument anchoring Monument Circle in the heart of the city. Aside from Washington, D.C., Indy is home to more monuments and memorials celebrating our nation's veterans than any other city.

P

et sharks, swim with dolphins, get up close and personal with orangutans, and feed colorful birds at the Indianapolis Zoo, a Top-10 zoo also certified as an aquarium and botanical garden.

Q

uench your thirst with a local craft brew from Sun King, Flat 12, Fountain Square, Bier, Triton, Black Acre or another one of Indy's hot new breweries. Better yet, sample them all with an Indy Brew Bus tour.

R

ace around the iconic Indianapolis Motor Speedway at up to 180 mph in a real IndyCar driven by you or a professional race car driver. Head down the street to Dallara IndyCar Factory to see where the speed machines are designed and fabricated.

S

ing and dance along to your favorite bands under the summer stars during a concert at The Farm Bureau Insurance Lawn at White River State Park. Pollstar considers it one of the world's top outdoor concert venues.

T

heaters throughout downtown offer an assortment of shows from large-scale off-Broadway productions to quirky performances at intimate venues. Murat Theatre features touring Broadway acts, Indiana Repertory Theatre delights audiences with top-notch plays, and Theatre on the Square and Phoenix Theatre in the Mass Ave neighborhood offer off-beat comedies and edgy dramas.

U

ncover Indiana's secrets through interactive exhibits exploring the state's diverse history at the Indiana State Museum, an architectural gem constructed completely of Indiana limestone, steel and glass.

V

enture through an 1836 Prairietown while interacting with in-character interpreters recreating life in 19th-century Indiana. An 1859 Balloon Voyage simulates the nation's first successful airmail fight, and 1863 Civil War Journey puts visitors in the middle of General John Hunt Morgan's cavalry raid, all at Conner Prairie, a Smithsonian affiliate.

X

ylophones, drums, gongs, and more from around the world invite interaction at Rhythm! Discovery Center.

W

alk through 152 acres of pristine gardens and grounds at the Indianapolis Museum of Art, where Robert Indiana's original LOVE sculpture decorates the front lawn. Inside is a stunning collection of 54,000 works of art spanning 5,000 years of history.

Y

ell BINGO! at White Rabbit Cabaret's weekly Burlesque Bingo in Indy's funky Fountain Square neighborhood. Shop art galleries and vintage clothing boutiques or enjoy authentic Peruvian food before the show.

Z

ipline through one of the nation's largest city parks and attempt a challenging ropes course with Go Ape Treetop Adventures at Eagle Creek Park.