

Speaker Release Form

2026 National Conference
July 7-10, 2026
Omni Nashville Hotel

I hereby assign and grant to the Society for Corporate Governance (the “Society”) and persons acting under its permission or authority the following rights in connection with the Society’s 2026 National Conference in which I am a participant:

- To use my name and image in connection with the promotion of the Conference and the Conference itself, including on, inter alia, the Society website, apps, promotional emails, and social media.
- To take photographs of the session(s) in which I am participating.
- To provide to the Conference registrants written background materials I share with Society in connection with my session (e.g., articles supporting CLE credit).*
- To summarize the key points from the sessions in which I participate, on a non-attribution, Chatham House Rule basis and to share those takeaways with Conference registrants, other Society members, and as part of future Society publications. Note that to assist in the preparation of those takeaways, the Society may make a temporary recording of the session(s), which will be used only internally by Society staff and all copies of which will be destroyed after the creation of the takeaways from the session. **

I hereby disclaim any ownership or property rights of any takeaways and publications arising from my participation in the sessions in which I participate.
