Serving All Law Enforcement Chaplains

John A. Price Award Nomination Form

John A. Price Award – Established in 1984, this award was named in honor of the late Chaplain John A. (Jack) Price, Albuquerque Police Department (NM). Jack served as ICPC's President from 1977 to 1979. He consistently demonstrated excellence in his own chaplain ministry, encouraged others to do the same, and was willing, over and over again, to give recognition when he saw excellence displayed through other chaplains' lives and service. We wish to continue his legacy by recognizing chaplains, who consistently over time, go above and beyond in their service to the law enforcement profession.

A minimum of 2 awards (equal consideration given regardless of agency size) are presented at the Annual Training Seminar (ATS) to recognize and honor law enforcement chaplaincy work at the local level.

Eligibility: Nominee should be a seasoned chaplain that has demonstrated a proven track record of excellent service. The Ethics Chair and Regional Director are contacted for their acknowledgment that nominee is a member of good-standing with ICPC. Current ICPC Executive Officer are ineligible for this award during their term in office.
