Q: When did you first become a member of IDUG?

A: My first IDUG conference was in Berlin in 2005. I was so impressed by everything that week that I immediately started trying to figure out how to come again, as soon as possible. By luck I got on the list to go to IDUG in 2006 as well. In 2007 I joined EMEA Conference Planning Committee and gave my first presentation. I haven't missed a year since!

Q: What would readers be the most shocked to learn about you?

A: At IDUG events, having people from varying countries, all speaking different languages sometimes makes it hard to feel like part of the "gang." In order to solve this problem, a "punishment" for speaking anything other than English was introduced, in form of a little vodka shot. In a while everybody was speaking English, in spite of vodka, or, perhaps, with little help from it. Anybody in favor of continuing the tradition?
