- Discrimination. This includes, but is not limited to, discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, immigration status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of the organization’s activities or operations. These activities include, but are not limited to, hiring and firing of staff, selection of volunteers and business partners, and provision of services. ILTA is committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of ILTA’s staff, members, volunteers, subcontractors, business partners, and individual participants.

In-person meetings and events

ILTA is committed to providing a safe, productive, and welcoming environment. ILTA Covered Individuals are expected to conduct themselves professionally, safely, and responsibly at all ILTA in-person events such as local meetings, socials, conferences and other events, including those hosted or sponsored by other organizations but held in conjunction with ILTA events or where an ILTA Covered Individual is representing ILTA.

In response to unacceptable behavior at an event, ILTA reserves the right to take action deemed necessary and appropriate, including immediate removal from the event without warning or refund and prohibiting attendance at future events. Event attendees should report any questionable or concerning activity to an ILTA representative, host, or venue staff.

With respect to alcoholic beverages, ILTA expects all ILTA Covered Individuals at ILTA events to drink or behave responsibly and not to participate in any function in a condition that prevents them from participating safely and from conducting ILTA business effectively or that might either negatively impact social interactions, or cause embarrassment to or damage the reputation of ILTA.

ILTA prohibits the signing of contracts between ILTA Covered Individuals in the presence of alcoholic beverages at ILTA events.
ILTA, its hosts, and venue event staff have the right to deny service to ILTA Covered Individuals for any reason. Failure to conduct oneself in a professional manner under the influence may face disciplinary action including, but not limited to, expulsion, limited future involvement, written warning, or suspension in association activities.

Violations
Violations of this Code of Conduct may result in restriction of access to ILTA resources, online communities, and services, up to and including expulsion from the organization as defined in section 4.8 of ILTA’s Bylaws.

Any ILTA Covered Individual who perceives a violation of the Code of Conduct should report the perceived violation as soon as possible to an ILTA staff member. An ILTA senior staff member will provide an incident report to the Chief Executive Officer, who will discuss the matter with the ILTA Board of Directors. The Board will send a letter to both complainant and offender outlining the behavior that occurred, parties impacted, and the Board’s decision on the offender’s future involvement (if any) with the association. Disciplinary action may include, but not be limited to, expulsion of an individual or entity, removal of an individual from an ILTA role, barring or suspension of future involvement in association activities, and records of written warning.
