

Resident Evaluation

For:

The goal for Medical Student to transition Intern is to become proficient as Reporter: able to gather relevant accurate information and to develop an understanding of your role as physician. ≤ 41

The goal of the mid year Intern is to be an Interpreter: where you build on the information and are able draw conclusions as to the significance of your findings and communicate those conclusions with patients, family and colleagues. 42 -53

The goal for Intern to transition PGY2 is to be proficient as Manager: able to manage common problems and communicate the process of a patient's condition while moving from the generic patient to individualized care. formulating clinical questions in the day-to-day care of patients 54 -71

The goal of the PGY3 to be an Educator: where you display clinical reasoning through self directed learning, in order to make evidence base decisions and mentor your juniors as well as educate and counsel your patients. 72

Competency	1 • Close supervision	2 • Needs assistance	3 • Perform solo	4 • Able to teach
------------	-----------------------	----------------------	------------------	-------------------

Resident:

PGY:

Date:

Score:

Patient Care

☐

☐

☐

☐

Medical Knowledge

☐

☐

☐

☐

Self Improvement

☐

☐

☐

☐

Communication

☐

☐

☐

☐

Professionalism

☐

☐

☐

☐

Systems Based Practice

☐

☐

☐

☐