

The AAIM Research Committee's Innovation Grants Subcommittee manages the Innovation Grants review and selection process. With $20,000 in sponsorship from Aquifer (formerly Med U), total funding for FY19 is $30,000.

Overview
Letters of Intent Received	116
Invitation to Submit Final Application	26
Submitted Final Applications	25
Final Selection of Grant Recipients	8
LOI Themes
Business of Medicine	3
Communication	1
Diversity and Inclusion	7
Health Care Disparities	11
High Value Care	6
Leadership Development	1
Learning and Working	6
Mentoring	6
Population Health and	3
Professionalism	1
Quality and Safety	6
Residency Scheduling Optimization	1
Resiliency Through Community Engagement	1
Resilience, Burnout, Health,	10
Teaching and Learning	53
Final Application Themes
Business of Medicine	1
Diversity	1
Health Care Disparities	4
High Value Care	1
Learning and Working	4
Mentoring	3
Quality and Safety	2
Teaching and Learning	6
Resilience, Burnout, Health, and	3
FY19 Grant Recipients
Diversity and Inclusion	1
Health Care Disparities	3
Learning and Working	1
Mentoring	1
Resilience, Burnout, Health, and Well-Being	1
Residency Scheduling Optimization	1

FY19 Grant Recipients
Recipient	Amount
Pramil Cheriya, MD, MS, FACP Ocean Medical Center Program Improving emotional intelligence among internal medicine residents using evidence-based medicine workshop	$5,000
Julia Close, MD University of Florida Addressing healthcare disparities in patients with sickle cell disease through an integrated implicit bias curriculum	$2,500
Gretchen Diemer, MD Thomas Jefferson University Creation of a self-contained pedagogical tool for opiate addiction problem	$2,500
Catherine Gao, MD Yale New Haven Hospital Automated scheduling tool to improve scheduling quality and resident satisfaction	$2,500
Nicole Grogan, MD University of Iowa Roy J. and Lucille A. Carver College of Medicine Framework to improve the quality of written and verbal feedback in UME and GME	$5,000
Jessica Murphy, MD, MS Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University Developing residents' critical consciousness through social determinants of health curriculum	$2,500
Abby Spencer, MD, MS, FACP Cleveland Clinic Foundation Key steps for women trainees to advance through leadership development	$5,000
Andrew Varney, MD Southern Illinois University Quality improvement project to create a safer workplace for residents and staff	$5,000

Timeline

- March 2019 – Final applicants notified of status
- April 2019 – AAIM membership notified, recipients recognized at Academic Internal Medicine Week
- May 2019 – Funds dispersed to grant recipients

Questions: Valerie O, Education and Research Manager, vo@im.org, (703) 341-4571