

Script Concordance Self-Assessment After the Activity

① If you receive the following qualitative feedback,		② Then, how would you characterize its quality and utility?
		Poorly written but likely to change practice	Poorly written and unlikely to change practice	Well written but unlikely to change practice	Well written and likely to change practice
1	It's always a pleasure to work with Dr. X!
2	Presentations are often brief and sometimes confusing. There needs to be more details.
3	Overestimates her sense of knowledge. Doesn't know what she doesn't know
4	Doesn't seem interested in knowing how medicine is financed.
5	Draws up plans based on patient preferences. Would recommend he keep doing that.
6	Forgot to get informed consent before joint aspiration!
7	I suspect he is a superficial learner ... he needs to read more
8	Dr. XX is not really reliable. I've asked him to do several things and he just didn't do it.
9	Runs the team well. She should consider delegating more tasks to students and residents on service.
10	I've been impressed by how she incorporates feedback into practice. She's gotten a lot better compared to six months ago.				