

Louisville IMA Wrap-Up 2018-2019

Detailed information regarding Utilize Volunteer Experience in your Career

Lunch Session: 11:30am to 1:00pm

Presentation: Utilize Volunteer Experience in your Career – 12:00pm to 12:50pm

Description:

This presentation will focus on how your volunteer activities could be utilized to achieve that next job promotion, skill advancement and confidence in your ability to take on new challenges in your department.

Course Objectives:

1. Understand the benefits of volunteering in your community
2. Effectively communicate how your volunteer commitment improves your work performance
3. Translate volunteer responsibility into Career Growth Opportunities/Improvements

CPE Credit: 1 CPE Credits

No Advanced Material & No Prerequisite for this

About the Presenter:

Tiffany is a Principal Consultant on MCM's HR Advisory Services team. Her expertise lies in over twenty years of experience in domestic and international human resources. She has expertise in acquisitions, change management, engagement, leadership coaching and development, performance management, compensation and total rewards, talent acquisition and workforce planning. Tiffany holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Northwestern University and a Master of Science in Human Resources and Industrial Relations from Loyola University. Tiffany holds the designation of SHRM-CP from the Society of Human Resources, the designation of PHR from the Human Resources Certification Institute and the designation of CCP from WorldatWork. She is involved with various nonprofit organizations, including serving as the current Director of Wellness and Past President with LSHRM (Louisville Society for HR Management).

Louisville IMA is always looking for ways to create Added Value to your IMA Membership.

Please email us at louisville@imachapter.org with suggestion or ideas about what we can do to that will create value for you.

Or Better yet, write your suggestion on your Conference Evaluation Form. At the end of each event we review the evaluations for how we can improve and what topics our next event should host.

We are always looking for volunteers, Get Involved today by emailing or Telling a Current Louisville IMA Volunteer today!

We would like to Offer a Special Thank you to:

&

ASTON CARTER

Thank you For Help to Make the Wrap-Up Event Free to our Community!