

Monica Martinez, Director of Operations and Community Relations, Arizona Council on Economic Education

Monica was former ACEE board member and the first Latina Governing Board President of the Peoria Unified School District. Monica holds a B.A. in Elementary Education from Arizona State University and a M.B.A. from Grand Canyon University. She earned her Certificate in Education Finance from Georgetown University with a focus on strategic fiscal management, finance policy analysis, and financial leadership.

Monica is one of the most passionate leaders, continually advocating for financial literacy, diversity, and inclusion. In her most recent role at Vanguard, Monica specialized in Institutional Investments and retirement education. You will often hear Monica speak about her two sons and their love for welding and athletics.