Megan Ahn, Founder, President, Accountants Direct (adirectsd.com)

Ever since I helped my first client fill a search in 1993 recruiting has been my passion. Today, I remain more passionate than ever about helping businesses recruit the best talent and representing candidates looking for their next opportunity. I founded Accountants Direct in 2002 to focus my recruiting efforts on San Diego and have worked diligently to stay current on the San Diego job market from a candidate and client perspective providing valuable “real time” expertise to each search. Accountants Direct is proud to have a proven track record of leveraging recruiting expertise and professional business relationships in the community to locate the best talent for San Diego companies.

I belong to Corporate Directors Forum, Business Executive Council and the San Diego Human Resources Forum. In addition, I have held board positions with the San Diego Chapter of the California CPA Society, National Human Resources Association and volunteered on the Membership Committee for local Chapters of the Corporate Directors Forum, Association for Corporate Growth, National Human Resources Association and served as Sponsorship Chair for the San Diego Chapter of CalCPA.
