

Call for Application

Invitation to Apply: Coaching for Social Impact Leaders

Empower changemakers. Elevate inclusion. Lead transformation.

The ICF Foundation, in partnership with a leadership development program, invites experienced coaches to apply for a unique opportunity to support civil rights leaders, government officials, and social enterprise changemakers working on a wide variety of pressing issues such as education and youth development, democracy, public health, and climate change through inclusive, values-driven coaching engagements.

This initiative seeks to strengthen leadership capacity and drive systemic change. Coaches will serve as strategic partners to emerging and established leaders who are advancing equity, accessibility, and social justice in their communities.

What We're Looking For

We are seeking ICF credentialed coaches who:

- Have experience working with leaders in government, civil society, education, or social enterprise.
- Are passionate about inclusion, equity, and public impact.
- Can commit to coaching leaders across diverse geographies and cultures.
- Are aligned with ICF Core Competencies and ethical standards.

Your Impact

As a coach in this initiative, you will:

- Support leaders in navigating complex challenges in public service and advocacy.
- Join a global network of purpose-driven coaches dedicated to systemic impact.

Please see below a tentative calendar of the coaching program.

- Coach Selection by 07/05/25
- Vet the coaches by 08/05/25
- Coach - Client Matching process by 09/20/25
- Coaches Orientation by 10/15/25
- Complete 6 coaching sessions by 06/04/26

We will reach out to you to discuss next steps after applications close in July 5th 2025.
