

Investment Adviser Association – Legal Internship – Summer Fall 2018

The Investment Adviser Association is offering a legal internship or externship position for Summer or Fall 2018. The position would be paid or for credit, respectively. The position is open to 2L and 3L students with an interest in securities law or candidates in a Securities & Financial Regulation LL.M. Program.

About the IAA: The IAA is a not-for-profit association that represents the interests of SEC-registered investment adviser firms. Founded in 1937, the IAA's membership consists of about 660 firms that collectively manage more than $20 trillion for a wide variety of individual and institutional investors, including pension plans, trusts, investment companies, private funds, endowments, foundations, and corporations. The primary focus of the IAA's legal work is the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and regulations thereunder. IAA legal staff also focuses on other federal, state, and international laws and regulations affecting investment advisers. For more information, please visit our web site: www.investmentadviser.org.

Duties of Legal Intern: The position would be under attorney supervision and would involve legal research, drafting articles for the monthly IAA Newsletter, drafting compliance materials and legal memoranda for our membership, and other projects as they arise. The work schedule can be full-time (40 hours per week), but other arrangements of 16 or more hours per week will be considered.

Preferred Start Date: May or June for Spring 2018; August or September for Fall 2018.

Qualifications: The position is open to students who have taken a federal securities regulation course. Enrollment in a Securities & Financial Regulation LL.M. Program is a plus. Candidates should have strong writing and communication skills.

Materials: Interested candidates should submit (1) cover letter; (2) resume; (3) transcript; (4) writing sample; and (5) two references. Send by email to:
