INVITATION TO SPONSOR

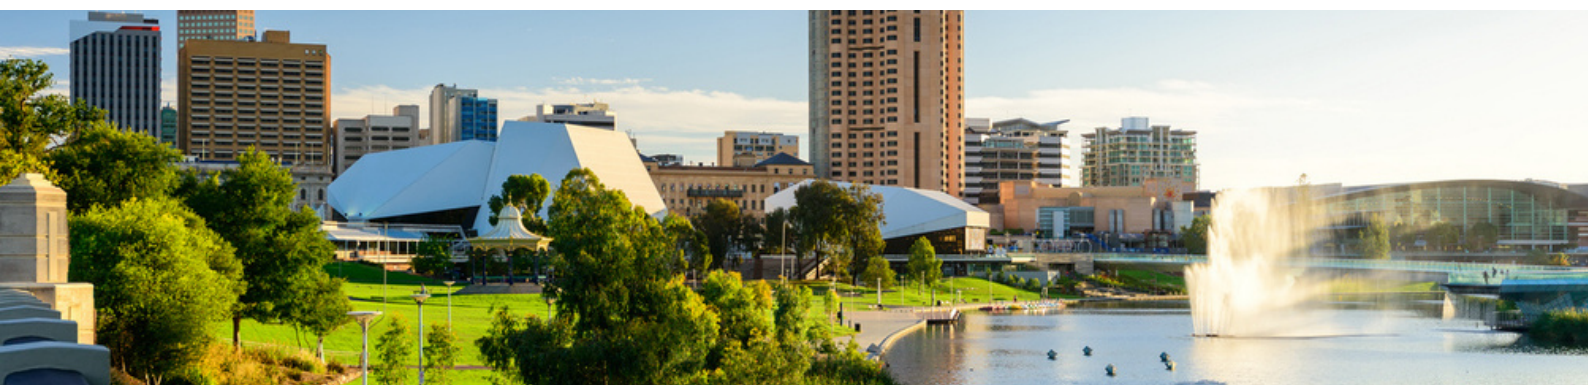

IPWEA South Australia is pleased to invite you to become a valued sponsor of the 2026 IPWEA South Australia State Conference, our flagship event for the public works engineering community. Mark your calendars, this year's conference will be held on Thursday, 12th November 2026 at the Adelaide Convention Centre.

We hope you'll join us in supporting this premier industry event, which continues to grow in reach and impact year after year. The 2026 conference promises to exceed expectations once again, with a compelling program of insightful speakers, interactive sessions, and valuable networking opportunities. This is a must attend event for professionals shaping the future of public infrastructure and services across South Australia.

Sponsorship provides unparalleled visibility among a highly targeted and influential audience, including engineers, project managers, government representatives, and private sector stakeholders. It's an ideal platform to showcase your organisation's expertise, products, and services to those who are leading critical infrastructure and public works projects in the region.

Remaining visible and connected within the public works engineering community is essential for long-term success. By sponsoring the 2026 IPWEA SA State Conference, you reaffirm your commitment to innovation, excellence, and reinforcing your position as a trusted partner within the sector.

We at IPWEA SA are excited to partner with you as we continue advancing the profession and delivering high-quality outcomes for our communities. We look forward to welcoming you to this landmark event.

CONFIRMATION & ACCEPTANCE

Submission of your order form will assume acceptance of the following Terms & Conditions:

1. All invoices are payable within the terms specified on the tax invoice. Sponsorship, advertising and exhibition entitlements will not be confirmed until full payment is received.
2. Payments not received within 30 days of the invoice (unless otherwise agreed in writing) may affect participation in the Event. All outstanding amounts, including registrations and additional fees, must be paid in full prior to the Event. The Organiser reserves the right to refuse entry to any Participant or representative with unpaid accounts.
3. All prices quoted in the Sponsorship Prospectus are exclusive of Goods and Services Tax (GST).
4. The Organiser reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to accept or decline any application without providing a reason.
5. The Organiser will use reasonable endeavours to allocate participation preferences. If a selected option is unavailable, the Participant will be notified promptly and offered alternatives.
6. All cancellations must be submitted in writing. Fees are non-refundable unless the cancelled sponsorship or exhibition space is resold, at the Organiser's discretion. If resold, refunds will be applied as follows:
 - 75% refund if notice is given more than 90 days prior to the event
 - 50% refund if notice is given more than 60 days prior to the event
 - 25% refund if notice is given more than 31 days prior to the event
 - No refund if notice is given within 30 days of the event
7. For cancellations made more than 30 days prior to the Event, a credit (less a 25% cancellation fee) may, at the Organiser's discretion, be transferred to another IPWEA Australasia event within 18 months. Credits cannot be transferred a second time.
8. Participants must comply with all Event, Organiser, and venue terms, including any lease, licence, or safety requirements.
9. The Organiser reserves the right to terminate participation for non-compliance. In such cases, all monies paid will be forfeited and the Organiser will not be liable for any resulting loss or damage.
10. Inclusion in Event programs and promotional materials is subject to booking date, receipt of required materials, and production timelines. Failure to meet deadlines may result in forfeiture of entitlements without refund.

CONFIRMATION & ACCEPTANCE

11. All signage and promotional material must be submitted for prior written approval. The Organiser may reject or require modification of any non-compliant materials.

12. The Organiser reserves the right to amend the exhibition floor plan and opening hours in the interest of the Event. Participants will be notified of any changes as soon as practicable.

13. Participants must hold current public and product liability insurance. A valid Certificate of Currency must be provided on request. Failure to provide evidence of insurance may result in refusal of access to the exhibition area.

14. Participants must ensure that all structures, signage, and displays comply with venue regulations and workplace health and safety requirements. No display may encroach upon adjacent exhibit space or obstruct aisles or emergency exits.

15. Participants are liable for any damage caused to the venue, including walls, floors, ceilings, fixtures, or fittings. All associated repair or reinstatement costs will be charged to the Participant.

16. Participants indemnify and hold harmless the Organiser, Organising Committee, and venue from and against any actions, claims, proceedings, losses, damages, costs, or expenses arising from the Participant.

17. To the extent permitted by law, the Organiser is not liable for any indirect, consequential, special, incidental or economic loss, including loss of profits, revenue, goodwill, business opportunity or anticipated savings arising from participation in the Event.

18. The Organiser will take reasonable precautions to safeguard the Participant's exhibit space, entitlements and property but accepts no responsibility for loss, theft, damage, or destruction of any property, however caused. All property is brought to the Event at the sole risk of the Participant.

19. Participants must not assign, sublet, share, or on-sell sponsorship entitlements or exhibit space, nor display products, services, or materials not directly related to their approved participation, without the prior written consent of the Organiser.

20. If the Event is cancelled for reasons within the reasonable control of the Organiser, the Organiser may provide a refund of monies paid, less any reasonable costs already incurred in connection with the Event or transfer the Participant's booking to a future event.

Where cancellation occurs due to circumstances beyond the Organiser's reasonable control, including but not limited to acts of God, natural disasters, public health emergencies, government restrictions, industrial action, venue unavailability, or any other force majeure event, the Organiser shall not be liable for any consequential loss and may, at its discretion, transfer participation to a future event in lieu of a refund.

21. The Organiser reserves the right to change the venue, date, speakers or program details at any time. Participants will be notified of any changes that may materially impact their participation. If the Event is postponed, the Participant's booking will automatically transfer to the new date. If the Participant is unable to participate in the rescheduled Event, the Participant may be eligible for a refund.

22. If government restrictions prevent an in-person event, the Organiser may postpone, run a hybrid event, or hold a fully virtual event. Changes will be communicated promptly. No refunds will be issued, but the Organiser will work with Participants to achieve a fair outcome.

23. The Participant's aggregate liability under this agreement is limited to the amount paid to the Organiser, except where the Participant is directly responsible for tangible property or personal damage, in which case the Participant bears full liability.
