SASIG

Monday 28 February 2022, 11am-12noon (GMT)
The 2022 spin on ransomware – Where is it heading?
https://www.thesasig.com/calendar/event/22-02-28-cybercrime/

Join thought leaders Phil Davies and Milad Aslaner as they take a deeper look at the latest trends in the ransomware threat landscape. From new delivery and initiation mechanisms to changes in how ransomware behaves and the strategies used by threat actors for success management. They will share also recommendations on how organisations can better prepare to defend against (and respond to) ransomware attacks in the new world order.

Tuesday 1 March 2022 9.45am  TWICE– 12noon and 1pm – 3.15pm (GMT)
SASIG will be running the activity twice on the day (one session in the morning and one in the afternoon) – please only register for one

Cyber Escape Room
https://www.thesasig.com/calendar/event/22-03-01-tabletop/

The Metropolitan Police's Cyber Escape Room is back by popular demand. We are excited to announce we will be running two more sessions of this successful exercise, this time at New Scotland Yard.

Wednesday 2 March 2022, 11am-12noon (GMT)
Don't Panic! How to test your crisis response plans like a pro https://www.thesasig.com/calendar/event/22-03-02-incident/
In this presentation, Isabel will take you through the preparation, delivery, and follow-up stages when running a cyber crisis tabletop exercise. Isabel will talk about buy-in and senior engagement, when to test, who to test, how to build a scenario (or modify one of the free online ones), what to do with the time you have on the day, and how important follow-up and remediation is.

Friday 4 March 2022, 11am-12noon (GMT)
The importance of branding in security awareness part 2

https://www.thesasig.com/calendar/event/22-03-04-awareness/

Join Oz Alashe MBE, CEO of CybSafe, and a panel of industry experts, including SASIG’s own Martin Smith MBE, as they look at how difficult (or easy) branding is to implement in your security awareness campaigns, why it is important, what has worked for them, and what hasn’t. The panel will share examples, tips, tricks, and advice on creating a successful brand image that will enhance your security awareness campaigns.
