ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Data Privacy or Information Privacy is a part of the data protection area that deals with the proper handling of data with the focus on compliance with data protection regulations. Data Privacy is centered around how data should be collected, stored, managed, and shared with any third parties, as well as compliance with the applicable privacy laws.

However, Data Privacy is not just about the proper handling of data but also about the public expectation of privacy, centering around the individual as a key figure. Data protection laws around the world aim to give back individuals control over the data, empowering individuals to know how their data is being used, by whom and why, giving them control over how their personal data is being processed and used.

In 2019, 73% of customers said trust in companies matters more than it did a year ago, according to the Salesforce research, and we can just assume that the numbers have gone up.

TRAINER PROFILE

Dr.Sonny Zulhuda obtained his LLB (Honours), MCL and Ph.D from IIUM. For his doctoral thesis which was completed in 2009, he wrote on the legal framework of information security in Malaysia, encompassing the issues of information governance, identity theft, cyber crimes, cyber terrorisms as well as the critical information infrastructure protection (CIIP). Besides, Dr. Sonny is trained on the Quality Management System (QMS) based on the ISO 9001:2008 and MS 1900:2014; Information Security Management System based on ISO/IEC 27001, CISSP review, as well as a certified trainer on Digital Etiquette and Appropriate Use of Technology, endorsed by the Ministry of Education. He is a Web-science Summer Doctoral Scholarship recipient in 2008 from the Oxford Internet Institute, the University of Oxford, UK. In the span of two years, between 2011 through 2013, Sonny was awarded two-time ICANN Fellowships by the multinational organization responsible for the Internet domain names management, i.e. the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN). He is a member of the International Association for Privacy Professionals (IAPP) and is an Academic Advocate at the ISACA Chapter Malaysia, a national body for information security, audit and assurance professionals. Dr. Sonny helped the Government of the Republic of Indonesia in preparing academic draft of Personal Data Protection Bill as well as draft Ministerial Regulations on wireless security and Internet content. In Malaysia, he was instrumental to the legal team who drafted the Malaysia's National Cyber Security Policy (NCSP) back in 2006. He also helped the Malaysia's Personal Data Protection Department on the PDP law training program. He had further developed and delivered training modules on the awareness, compliance and rolling-out of the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 for both public and private sectors in Malaysia across various industries. Dr. Sonny was a cyber law lecturer at Multimedia University (2006-2010) before he joined the Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyyah of Laws, IIUM as an Assistant Professor in July 2010. He occasionally blogs at http://sonnyzulhuda.com..
