Dr. Edwin Donald Frauenstein is a senior academic in the Department of Information Technology at Walter Sisulu University in East London, South Africa. He holds a PhD (Commerce) degree in Information Systems obtained from Rhodes University in 2021 and a Masters degree in Information Technology from Nelson Mandela University in 2013. He has over 15 years of teaching experience in academia. I am actively engaged in research in the area of information security, with a particular focus on human factors and behavioral aspects related to susceptibility to social engineering and phishing attacks. He has presented papers locally and internationally, contributing to the body of knowledge in this critical field. Furthermore, I continue to serve as a peer reviewer for several international academic journals, ensuring the quality and rigour of research in the broader academic community.
