Letter from the President

Ian Connors
Chapter President

I hope everybody is staying safe and healthy as we all look forward to the day we can return to normal routines…or at least whatever the new normal will be! Your ISACA North Texas volunteer group misses the opportunity to engage and connect with you in person at our monthly meetings. In the meantime, we have been working to gain approval from NASBA (our CPE authority) to host virtual meetings. Given the volume of requests they're receiving, this will take some time. In the meantime, we're happy to announce we will be hosting a short, 1-hour virtual meeting to present our current financials, elect next year's Board of Directors, and have a guest speaker present on a topic to-be-determined

Assuming we're still waiting for NASBA's approval, this topic will not be for CPE. Expect this session to take place in the second half of June and be on the lookout for an email invite so you can make your voice heard as we go through our election process.

We typically host a summer seminar with a targeted topic that awards anywhere from 16 to 40 CPE. This summer, we're hoping to offer you a virtual CISSP Boot Camp presented by Clay Risenhoover. We've received very good feedback on this boot camp in the past, so stay tuned for that invite as well (again…pending NASBA approval for virtual sessions).

We are currently moving forward with plans for our usual fall review courses (CISA, CRISC, CISM, CSX), tentatively set to begin on Saturday, October 31st, at UT Dallas. I'm saying "tentative" because we don't yet know how things will look for local universities or our instructor group in the fall. Assuming the campus is open and available for our use, I imagine we'll have to follow strict guidelines. We still have plenty of time and will keep you informed of any developments.

We do often receive inquiries about hosting review courses online. Unfortunately, we are restricted by ISACA International from offering any of our review courses virtually. ISACA themselves offer various alternatives that you are able to take advantage of if you'd like to pursue that channel.

Please join us in June for our short virtual meeting. This will represent a small step towards a return to normalcy and end our 2019-2020 season on a high note. I look forward to seeing you there!

Cororavirus Update

ISACA
North Texas Chapter

In line with CDC/WHO guidelines and requirements from many local employers, we have canceled all large events (review courses, monthly meetings) for the foreseeable future due to COVID-19. We will continue to monitor and look forward to hosting events as soon as the situation is resolved. Many thanks for your patience!
