

CRESCENT CITY EXCELLENCE AWARDS

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

I. What are the Crescent City Excellence Awards?

The Crescent City Excellence Awards program is designed to acknowledge the extraordinary efforts, performance, and outstanding contributions of the live event industry professionals in the New Orleans Metro Area.

II. Who can enter the awards?

For single and joint entries, it is not necessary that you be an ILEA member to submit an entry.

III. Why should I enter the Crescent City Excellence Awards?

By entering the Crescent City Excellence Awards, you are able to demonstrate the caliber of work that you or your company creates. This is your opportunity to show others in the industry your talent and what makes your company stand apart from the competition. Imagine being able to tell your clients that you and your company are "award winning!"

IV. Who judges the awards?

In order to maintain fairness in the judging, the Crescent City Excellence Awards are entirely anonymous and are judged by event professionals who are members of ILEA from other chapters around the world and not any members of ILEA New Orleans.

V. What are the most common reasons for disqualification?

If you follow the step by step instructions and category specific guidelines, your entry will be valid. Most common mistakes include: entrant name and/or company name included on entry pages or in collateral materials.

