ILEA NCC Living in SIP Together Monthly

We're officially five months into shelter in place here in the Bay Area. That's 22 weeks, 154 days or 3,696 hours – but who's counting? While a full return to a pre-Covid kind of normalcy still feels very far away, our new lives are actually starting to feel like the status quo. Now that I have figured out what this new alternate universe looks like for me, I'm working on cramming all of the summer activities I possibly can into the next month or so while we have this amazing weather. Goodbye to the June/July fog! With those summer vibes in mind, here is this month's list of SIP fun:

- The pandemic has made vacationing much more difficult, but there is still time for a safe summer getaway – check out this list of Bay Area road trip destinations!
- Missing summer concerts and festivals? Check out JL Imagination's Summer Music Series Fundraiser this Friday and party with your fellow event industry friends to benefit a great cause!
- High on my summer bucket list is heading out to a drive-in movie! It is the perfect activity to get together with a few friends, safely from the comfort of your own car. Check out this Drive-In Pop-Up at the Alameda County Fairgrounds or head to one of the West Wind locations around the Bay Area. There's even a drive-in Metallica concert coming up at the end of the month!

- For the perfect summer beverage to take to all of your outdoor activities, check out the She Cans from the McBride Sisters! These delicious canned wines and spritzers come in the most gorgeous cans to add a little touch of luxury to any socially distant picnic. Plus there is an incredible story behind the wine partnership.
- There are a few fine dining restaurants from San Francisco taking their provisions to the farm in the upcoming months! Check out this article with a round up of the amazing experiences being offered that combine local farms and vineyards with award-winning chefs and restaurants. This one night out feels like a whole vacation on its own.
- And for a little bit of fun to leave off on this month... this impressive dance video made my day!

See you next month for another edition of Living in SIP Together. We'd love to hear from you at togetherweekly@ileancc.org if you've got something for us to share!
