COULD YOU SPARE A LITTLE CHANGE TO PROTECT YOUR CAREER?

$1 million in professional liability protection for about 30 cents a day.

Educators face increasing work-related conflict.

These days, even the best educators can end up in court or before an administrative hearing.

Unfortunately, school districts don't always jump to provide a defense – or worse yet, they're the adversary!

When you have your own professional liability policy, you can be sure your personal interests are represented and your personal assets are protected.

The Educators Professional Liability Plan pays for all your defense costs and provides up to $2 million for settlements or penalties. The plan also provides legal support if you are subject to an administrative hearing or job actions such as reassignment, transfer, or dismissal.

Coverage is affordable.

Just $108 for $1 million liability limit, or $151 for $2 million.
