We're Good for Business

WHO WE ARE

Founded in 1976, the League is a network of more than 300 historic theatres throughout the United States and Canada.

OUR MISSION // The mission of the League of Historic American Theatres is to champion the preservation, restoration and operation of historic theatres.

OUR VISION // The League envisions these unique showcases for human creativity, arts and culture as vital assets in livable communities throughout North America.

OUR VALUES // We believe that historic theatres are irreplaceable social, economic, historic and cultural resources for their communities. As iconic, creative places of public assembly, they build community loyalty, reinforce community identity and heritage, stimulate downtown revitalization, promote pride of place and anchor creative economies.

WHAT WE DO

Historic theatres are successful survivors. Their managements constantly adapt their programming, operations and facilities to remain relevant to communities who embrace them. The League provides its membership with the tools, techniques and technologies to sustain and thrive at the center of their communities.

WHY YOU SHOULD BECOME A SPONSOR

Strengthen your company's name recognition and enhance visibility within the historic theatre field.

Gain a competitive advantage by exposing your company's products and services to your target market.

Demonstrate your company's leadership in the field to more than 300 historic theatres across the U.S. and Canada.

Support activities and programs designed specifically to sustain historic theatres of various sizes, operating structures and programming philosophies.

Receive year-round acknowledgment in our publications and on the League website and reach League members and hundreds of others who turn to the League for help.

Create business opportunities and relationships at the conference.

A READY MARKET

Over 65% of League members are actively planning to renovate/expand their theatres and upgrade their equipment/systems. They are looking for products and services like yours!
