

April 7, 2022

April Law Institute

Virtual 9:00am - 2:00pm

* Agenda

- 9:00am: Welcome
- 9:15am: The Role of School Resource Officers and Search and Seizure Issues
- 10:15am: Break
- 10:30am: Title IX: Traps for the Unwary
- 11:45am: Lunch
- 12:30pm: Bullying Claims
- 1:15pm: Student Discipline
- 2:00pm: Closing Remarks

Coming Soon...

May 17: Pre-Conference

May 18 - May 20: Annual Institute at Ocean Edge Resort, Cape Cod

The Role of School Resource Officers and Search and Seizure Issues

Michael V. Glennon, Chief of the Juvenile Unit, Suffolk County

A number of court cases related to the 4th Amendment as it relates to schools have made the Search and Seizure provision a central focus of school administrators. This session will touch on that subject and other issues related to the best utilization of School Resource Officers within the schools and student events in the community.

Title IX: Traps for the Unwary

Judy A. Levenson, Law Office of Judy A. Levenson, Attorney

Interested in minimizing your district's potential liability for sexual harassment claims? Learn about compliance issues such as major changes required by the 2020 Title IX regulations; necessary policy and procedure updates; investigating and deciding Title IX complaints; Biden Administration initiatives; and staffing and budget issues.

Bullying Claims

Joe Bartulis Jr, Fletcher Tilton, Attorney

MASBO's own Joseph Bartulis Esq. will present the fine points about what SBO's as well as districts should do to be prepared to defend claims of bullying that a district should have known was happening and have policies/protocols in place to address bullying.

Student Discipline

Joe Bartulis Jr, Fletcher Tilton, Attorney

MASBO's own Joseph Bartulis, Esq. will deliver a session on the ins and outs with respect to districts meting out discipline to students and the legal potholes to avoid when doing so.

Cancellations MUST be received in writing no later than March 31, in order to avoid being charged.