Cristina Evans is the Office Administrator at Midwest Business Group on Health. Cristina joined MBGH in 2019 and is responsible for supporting the team in preparing for and implementing advisory board meetings, learning networks, roundtables, the MBGH annual conference, and multi-stakeholder meetings. She manages social network communications and takes the lead on data collection and evaluation to drive program improvements.

Cristina graduated from Illinois State University with a Health Science degree in Public Health. She also earned a graduate certificate from Benedictine University in Epidemiology. Cristina previously worked at a pediatric hospital supporting the preventive cardiology program where she conducted patient health needs assessments, clinical research, patient education, marketing, and program quality improvement.

Cristina is passionate about public health initiatives and healthcare benefit movements. She enjoys running, reading, and traveling during her spare time.
