Denise Giambalvo joined MBGH in 2018 and leads the team for membership retention activities, member communications and finances. She is also involved in educational programs and research projects.

Prior to joining MBGH, Denise served as executive director for MBGH sister coalition, Employers' Health Coalition in Fort Smith, AR. In this role, she was directly involved in contract negotiations for Employers' Choice Rx, the coalition's transparent PBM product. In addition, she oversaw EHC's launch of the National Diabetes Prevention Program in September 2017 and negotiated a group rate for a product rollout that allows employers to offer financial wellbeing programs to their employees in 2018. In addition, EHC has conducted various research projects focused on limited-fill, site-of-service and data analysis.

Denise recently served on the Board of Governors for the National Alliance of Healthcare Purchaser Coalitions. She received her master's degree in human resource management in 2012.
