

Samantha Clark

Assistant Manager, Events and Membership

Samantha joined Midwest Business Group on Health in September 2024. As MBGH's Assistant Manager, Events and Membership, Samantha is responsible for administrative duties in executing MBGH's meetings and educational events. Samantha offers support with MBGH's presence on social media, event planning, and membership.

Formerly working in the qualitative market research industry, Samantha has gained over 6 years of project management experience.

Samantha earned her Bachelor of Organizational Communications degree from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2013.