

APPLICATION FOR FAMILY LAW COUNCIL

forward to Donald C. Wheaton, Jr. at

don@lawyerhousecalls.com

The privilege of Family Law Council Membership requires a significant investment of time and energy, and includes at least the following commitments: (1) Attendance and active participation at the monthly Council meetings (nine meetings held generally on the 1st Saturday of each month at various locations throughout Michigan), as well as the Annual meeting each September. A Council member is permitted two absences, and subject to automatic removal for three absences; excused absences are only granted if Council has directed participation in a conflicting State Bar event. (2) Publication of at least one article regarding Family Law for the Family Law Journal or the State Bar Journal during their term. (3) Active participation in at least one Committee; participation may be by telephone each month or in person. (4) Active support, attendance and/or testimony regarding significant Legislation pending before the Michigan Legislature, or attendance/testimony before the Michigan Supreme Court on Court Rule Amendments or proposals.
